CASE NUMBER: 04CR20075

VERSUS

JUDGE MELANCON

GREGORY JAMES CATON

MAGISTRATE JUDGE HILL

MOTION TO WITHDRAW AS COUNSEL

NOW COMES, Lewis O. Unglesby of the law firm of Unglesby and Marionneaux who moves as follows:

1.

I was enrolled as counsel for Gregory James Caton (hereinafter referred to as "Caton").

2.

That on May 3, 2005 I received copies of a court order dated April 25, 2005 reflecting that on April 13, 2005 Caton filed a motion alleging inefficient assistance of counsel.

3.

That under the circumstances, it appears that the undersigned must withdraw as acting counsel for Caton.

4.

That Caton had previously requested that I continue my representation regarding issues surrounding forfeiture of certain properties.

5.

That given the motion for post-conviction relief, it would not be appropriate for me to maintain as counsel on those ongoing issues which are a part of Caton's issues surrounding his sentence.

WHEREFORE, counsel prays that this Honorable Court permit his withdrawal in accordance with law and the Rules of Professional Responsibility.
